

Yahweh is teaching His family about government in a progression of history from Adam in the garden of Eden to the advanced American Christian Commonwealth Constitutions

Below is why Christ's enemies hate the Bible Commonwealth of original American State governments and their friendly federation under the original United States Constitution

Gen.2:15 And Yahweh God took the man, and put him into the garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it.

Gen.14:18 And Melchizedek king of Salem brought forth bread and wine: and he was the priest of the most high God. 19 And he blessed him, and said, Blessed be Abram of the most high God, --- 20 And blessed be the most high God, which hath delivered thine enemies into thy hand. And he gave him tithes of all.

Genesis 32:28 And he said, Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God, and with men, and hast prevailed.

Ex.4:22 And thou shalt say unto Pharaoh, Thus saith Yahweh, Israel is my son, even my firstborn: 23 And I say unto thee, Let my son go, that he may serve me:

Deuteronomy 17:15 --one from among thy brethren shalt thou set king over thee: thou mayest not set a stranger over thee, which is not thy brother.

2 Samuel 2:4 And the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah.

Ecclesiastes 10:17 Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of nobles, and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness!

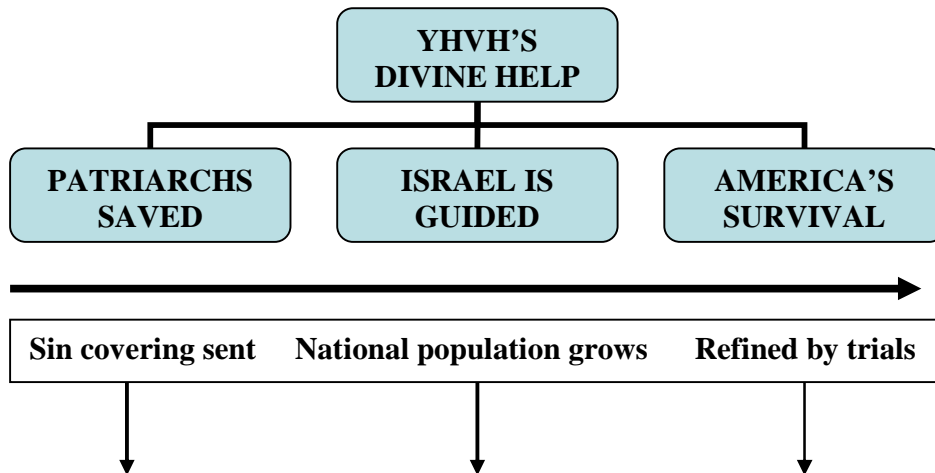

Mat.21:43 Jesus said: The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, (corrupt Judea system) and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

The numerical value of the name "Jesus" in Greek is 888. Twice this as double witness (Mat.18:16) is 888 x 2 = 1776, The Kingdom number

Mark 10:44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.

Eph. 2:12,19 That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the Commonwealth of Israel Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God

During the eons long “government instruction” for Israel, Yahweh sends timely divine intervention for protection

Genesis 3:21 Unto Adam also and to his wife did Yahweh God make coats of skins, and clothed them.

Genesis 7:1 And Yahweh said unto Noah, Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for thee have I seen righteous before me in this generation.

Genesis 22:8 And Abraham said, My son, God will provide himself a lamb for a burnt offering: so they went both of them together.

Genesis 47:12 And Joseph nourished his father, and his brethren, and all his father's household, with bread, according to their families. (bread symbolizes Christ)

Genesis 32:30 And Jacob called the name of the place Peniel: for I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved.

Genesis 47:27 And Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the country of Goshen; and they had possessions therein, and grew, and multiplied exceedingly.

I Sam.8:19 Nevertheless the people -- said, Nay; but we will have a king over us; 20 That we also may be like all the nations [ Note: This was sin in that Israel rejected Yahweh as King, but rather than it being the end of all good rule as some teach, Yahweh saves Israel here by divine intervention as He gives instruction of what is required of the men Kings]

Jeremiah 33:22 As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured: so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister unto me. [ As Christ's Body is the seed-Christian civil law is prophesied here, Rom 13!]

[After 6000 years of training it is “test time” for Saxon Christian Israel as they come into their ‘New Jerusalem’ of America and establish Christ’s National Kingdom anew under the NT govt law. Under the Biblical law of contracts, the Christian U.S. Constitution fulfills the command of The Master “whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.”(Mark10:44)Yet enemies abound in the land provoking a showdown of the ages between good and evil.

Galatians 5:1 Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.

Revelation 12:11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. (also Ezek.38 applies)

Government assemblies, Ordinances, Constitutions, etc.
ARE Biblical and needed!

Before we continue, let's understand that today's federal Constitution with its 27 amendments as being enforced by Washington D.C. has little, if anything at all, to do with the original Constitution for the United States of America of 1787, ratified 1788. The original Constitution was ratified by the people of the sovereign Christian States ( all were actually Commonwealths by application), and as such it was an agreement being Biblical in concept, arising under the Godly purpose of covenants (contracts) between men and men. Those who cannot see this truth have attacked the entire usefulness of our Constitution by viewing it through today's "out of control antics" of the policies of D.C. In doing so they have mistakenly condemned a Biblical part of our American heritage by lumping the Constitution in with ungodly deeds of evildoers. By not properly understanding what the original Constitution means in light of our centuries long guidance by The Almighty, those who want to discard it altogether would throw out nearly 6000 years of government training that Yahweh God has patiently taught our Saxon family through a very long period of historical development. Unless we feel like starting over again with another 6000 years of training to bring in the fullness of Christ's Kingdom, it would be much better that truth seekers finally learn precisely how our Constitution fits into Yahweh's plans for advanced civilized government among His Saxon race in the Earth.

Since the Commonwealth Assembly form of government of Ephesians 2:12-20 corresponds to the righteous design of civilized government of Romans 13:1-7, we know that such lawful assemblies along with the honorable decrees, laws, ordinances, and rules that men pass for orderly society are not against Yahweh's Will of divine laws. In fact they are ordained by Yahweh as the higher form of a governing administration in a Christian community progressing into a more complex age where "knowledge will be increased" (Dan.12:4) with countless new endeavors being in need of staying within God's Laws.

There are some who mistakenly reason that since the words "United States Constitution" are not found in the Bible, it must follow that Constitutionalism is ungodly. This is far from correct as Yahweh Himself, being able to see down through the annals of time, certainly had foreknowledge that even though His laws must be the standard, it can not be expected of men to use contractual precepts that applied to donkey stall management in the year 400 B.C. to that of a high tech electrical engineering project in the 21st century. To say that a Constitution which is established to protect God Given Rights while administering an orderly society is ungodly (asserting that it adds to God Laws) is the equivalent of saying that using a printing press to print Bibles is ungodly because a "printing press" is not to be found in the laws of the Bible. Modern rifles, revolvers, or automatic firearm weapons are not to be found in the Bible either. Christ specifically told us to buy a SWORD if we don't have one (Lk. 22:36). Can any intelligent and sensible person really believe that owning a hand gun or rifle today is disobedience to God because it adds to His Word and Law, and that we Biblically must only limit our weaponry to swords, the Biblical weapon of choice?

In our present dilemma of national current events we surely need cooler heads to prevail instead of overzealous emotionalism that would destroy our Christian Republic with the reasoning that any union of the States toward any federalism at all is evil and non-Biblical. Every era of great trials always produces anxious people who would swing the pendulum of solutions so far in the opposite direction that their end is no better than the problem they protest against. Now is not the time for that to happen in a struggling America looking for national solutions.

Constitutionalism, Biblically applied, has a distinct purpose in Saxon Christian governing in the latter days. Its purpose within the law is of divine origin. A Christian Constitution is an agreement between Christians. An agreement constitutes a contract or covenant. A simple Bible covenant agreement is seen in a marriage covenant between two people, a man and a woman. A Christian Compact or Constitution is merely an agreement between people as well, but instead of only two people, the details of a Constitution can and usually do attain to a much more involved level. Both of these covenants, the marriage and the constitutional agreement, are Biblical since not only do men make covenants between themselves and God, but they must also make covenants between themselves. The basis of constitutions as valid covenants between men rests upon the law of contracts in the Bible and the freedom which God Almighty has bestowed upon man to enter into contracts among themselves. We know that there are covenants made between God and man, but there are also covenants (contracts/compacts) made between men and men. American Christians would do well to remember that the actual ancient beginnings of our national heritage is based upon a “man made contract”, specifically the contract that Jacob made with Laban to serve him in exchange for Laban’s daughter Rachel in marriage. (Gen. 29:18) Jacob was a man who knew that contracts between men and men must be honored, and Jacob’s heirs later became the several tribes of Israel, which in turn eventually became the nation of Israel. Contract law is thus in the blood of Saxondom by our father Jacob, a man blessed by Yahweh.

This beginning of entrance into contracts between man and man predates the laws for the nation given to Moses at Mt. Sinai. Jacob’s awareness of contracts was also enacted by his grandfather Abraham who contracted with Abimilech in exchanging promises to resolve a land dispute over the use of a water well. (Gen. 21:22-32) Likewise, Rahab and the spies exchanged a contracted agreement between them before she acted to help them escape from the soldiers of the King of Jericho (Joshua 2:8-17). These and other mutual agreements between men are not only purposed in the Old Testament heritage of our people, but Christ in the New Testament reinforces the natural right of men to privately contract with each other. Our Master, in the parable of the workers in the vineyard seen at Matthew 20:1-16, not only clearly sets forth our natural right to make agreements of contracts, but tells us that we also have the liberty to set the terms of the contract, and enforce those terms, even if those who agreed to the contract later complain about it. More amazingly, and something every Bible student of divine law needs to make a note of, is that Christ likens this contract law between men to that of “the Kingdom of Heaven" (v.1) It is no wonder that the very word "America" as viewed in Christian compact (contract) law actually means "Kingdom of Heaven" in both the Saxon Gothic and Hebrew language origins of that word. (see Law Preface Article, these commentaries) It is under the Articles of Confederation and Perpetual Union of 1777 and the Constitution For the United States of America 1787, that this Biblical contract law between men officially recognized the "United States of America" – "The United States of The Kingdom of Heaven".

Amos 3:3 tells us. "Can two walk together except they be agreed?" Agreements between men produce administrative covenants (constitutions), and God's Word testifies to this matter. Nobody can walk anywhere (get anything done) until they first meet for agreement. John Gill's Expositor, 1760, London reference comment on Amos 3:3 states, "Unless they meet together, and appoint time and place, when and where they shall set out, what road they will take, and whither they will go; without such consultation and agreement, it cannot be thought they should walk together; and not amicably, unless united in friendship, and are of the same affection to each other, and of the same sentiments one with another; or it is much if they do not fall out by the way. The design of these words is to show, that without friendship there is no fellowship, and without concord no communion; as this is the case between man and man, so between God and man"

Those who say, "We have God's Laws so why would we need a Constitution?" have not thought out the implications of their question. True Constitutional Law is a vehicle to administer God's Law in a free market society advancing on all fronts of accomplishments. The Saxon race is capable of correctly using detailed constitutionalism to advance in the divine calling to govern the world for good. The heathen races cannot achieve this, and only know "might makes right" as a method to rule. God's Laws are surely written for us to freely search out within His Word. But there comes a time and place that in order for those laws to become the cornerstone of society, men must actually get together (congregate, congregation, Congress) at some designated place and set times to discuss, agree, and covenant with each other on exactly how to apply those good laws in administration. These meetings naturally must be in pursuance of God's Laws. But to think that every single situation of time and place should be mentioned in the Bible, and if it's not, then such a convening meeting (Congress) would somehow be "adding to God's Laws, thus evil", would be an absurd deduction to say the least.

For instance, the Bible does not say "When thou saileth to Plymouth New England in 1620, thou shalt make a governing agreement on your ship before you set foot on land". Nor could we expect the Bible to list all such historical events. However, what the Scriptures do teach is for us to "Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for Yahweh's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme; Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by Him for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of them that do well." (I Peter 2:13,14)

Considering this Scripture command, we may further ask, “I thought we are only to obey Yahweh’s listed Laws as read from the Bible? How then can we obey man’s every ordinances too?” Good question. The answer is that history was going to produce a vast array of situations where the Bible Law must be applied to governing. However, every single distinct instance in history was not meant to be foretold and listed in the Bible narrative. If any rule of man would directly violate a law of God then we are advised, “we ought to obey God rather than man” (Acts 5:29) As long as man’s administration is in pursuance of Bible Law, all of the compact (ordinances) of man are to be obeyed, according to God’s own Word! God honors these “ordinances of man” as valid and binding, but there simply is no way that we could expect all of the ordinances of man throughout all of history to be located in the Bible, nor would such ordinances ever have been meant to be found there.

To further illustrate this, we could not expect that since a contract which you might make with a person to pave your driveway can’t be found in the Bible text, that somehow you are wrong in making that contract, or that the contract itself would somehow be evil. By the same token, the original federal Constitution, even though its text is not written into the Bible, is not evil, since its intent was to further the Christian union of states which arose from the Christian colonies. Sadly, the Constitution is now being maligned by some who are presenting false and inaccurate information concerning its original contractual intent. Men certainly can contract with each other as a natural right and comply with Biblical standards in doing so to secure an orderly society.

Therefore, what happened on the Mayflower in 1620 when the Pilgrims came to America? They did exactly what they were supposed to do. They made an agreement, a “compact”, in which they declared that they were pursuing advancement of the Christian Faith, that they made a civil body politick to that end, that they would enact laws and draw up constitutions, provide officers to enforce the agreement, and to submit themselves to this law for their own order and preservation. This action was not only responsible, it was Biblical under the Bible law of contracts.

Mayflower Compact : 1620

Agreement Between the Settlers at New Plymouth : 1620

IN THE NAME OF GOD, AMEN. We, whose names are underwritten, the Loyal Subjects of our dread Sovereign Lord King James, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. Having undertaken for the Glory of God, and Advancement of the Christian Faith, and the Honour of our King and Country, a Voyage to plant the first Colony in the northern Parts of Virginia; Do by these Presents, solemnly and mutually, in the Presence of God and one another, covenant and combine ourselves together into a civil Body Politick, for our better Ordering and Preservation, and Furtherance of the Ends aforesaid: And by Virtue hereof do enact, constitute, and frame, such just and equal Laws, Ordinances, Acts, Constitutions and Officers, from time to time, as shall be thought most meet and convenient for the general Good of the Colony; unto which we promise all due Submission and Obedience. IN WITNESS whereof we have hereunto subscribed our names at Cape-Cod the eleventh of November, in the Reign of our Sovereign Lord King James, of England, France, and Ireland, the eighteenth, and of Scotland the fifty-fourth, Anno Domini; 1620. (Emphasis added)

Some theorists recently have made the argument that America's colonial laws and charters prior to the U.S. Constitution were fine because "those were Christian governments", but that the Constitution of 1787, simply because it is "constitutionalism", is an evil secular usurpation of those earlier local governments. Those who make this incorrect supposition fail to note that the Mayflower Compact, which they do cite as an organic document promoting good Christian Biblical government, itself states that "constitutions and officers" would be part of the necessary government in the new land in order to advance Christianity. Again, this is Biblical by order of Christian Commonwealth administration (Eph.2, Rom.13, I Pet.2) as Yahweh advances the ability of His Saxon race to govern on an increasing level of responsible maturity, using His very Kingdom Laws as the foundation. Please note that any reasoning that states "if it's not in the laws of Moses then it's not part of Yahweh's Laws", cannot Biblically be used as a reason to dispose of the original U.S. Constitution (contracted into and ratified by the then Christian States in 1788). As we have already seen, the Biblical natural right of men to enter into covenants by way of contract law predates the period of Moses who received the national law commandments. In fact, those who say that we can't enter into governmental contracts of constitutions because we don't read about it in the Laws of Moses, have got it exactly backwards. Divine right of contracts in the Bible came long before Moses was ever around, and the Law given to Moses by Yahweh compliments that right, and never dissolves it. Oral and written contract covenants between men and men are eternally applicable and are based on the very nature of Yahweh God Himself in the freedom to make and keep promises. That the fullness of the Kingdom (government) is entirely based on all of the promises that Yahweh has made with Israel, and that all of these divine Kingdom promises are themselves within the Commonwealth aspect of advanced government, is evident in Ephesians 2:12, which we have mentioned:

Ephesians 2:12 "That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the Commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world:"

Christian law students please understand that ! The Bible teaches that the covenants of promise are now in the Commonwealth of Israel!

James 2:5 “Hearken, my beloved brethren (the NT Commonwealth assembly – congress/congregation, assembly), Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the Kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?”

John 14:15 (Jesus said) “If ye love me, keep my commandments.”

These “covenants of promise of the Kingdom” now inside the NT Commonwealth of Israel as the Scriptures clearly tell us, include the covenant given to Abraham; with Isaac, with Jacob, to the covenant at Mount Sinai made with Israel; to the outpouring of the covenant of grace to that people, sometimes called the first covenant and the new covenant, as well as the covenant of Kingship under Christ who receives the throne of David, even more, --- all which peculiarly belong only to Saxon Israel by promise. Plainly put, THE KINGDOM LAW, is now inside the Commonwealth for that is the heart of the Kingdom. To this end, compact (contract, constitution) law is not only valid, it is purposed by Yahweh in the higher calling of His people in the latter days upon the Earth.

Before we continue with this Law Commentary, the reader may want to get a better handle on exactly what a “Commonwealth” is anyhow. Some liberal Churches have made the ignorant rationalization that true Christianity is Communism. Far from it. Under Communism, the atheist State owns all property, and an elite politburo is in reality the State. The Christian Commonwealth is a government based on God’s Laws as its foundation, and any land that is not owned privately by a person, is owned by the Christian community of people who retain all rights, and the “State” only exists as a servant of the people to operate the wheels of administration.

Commonwealth - “A form of government, named for the concept that everything that is not owned by specific individuals or groups is owned collectively by everyone in the governmental unit, as opposed to a state, where the state itself owns such things” – (Commonwealth Defined, University of Kentucky Libraries, Preservation and Digital Programs, Sept. 23, 2008)

This, of course, is rooted in Bible law and is what is meant by private possessions voluntarily being shared with those in common out of the goodness of the heart (Acts 4:32), as opposed to State Communism which takes private property by force for redistribution. The one form of governing is based on giving, sharing, and serving, while the other exists on taking all goods by force to manage the group. Technically, all States of the United States were lawfully meant to be Commonwealths, having their origins in Christian law, which is why in our “government” court cases the titles still read “The People vs. John Doe”. States that have strayed from this are themselves breaking the law and need reminded so by their Christian Commonwealth citizens.

Furthermore, in truth God's Kingdom is to be found alive within the lawful Christian Commonwealth form of government, but "we the people" today being put to sleep and made blind have not been enforcing this maxim of law, and the States are a joke of a vestige of what they should be. Finally, who is capable of participating in a Christian Commonwealth in an official capacity? Only those who have studied and are well learned in God's laws and grace, for in such we see the manifestation of the prayer "thy Kingdom come, thy will be done on Earth as it is in heaven". Thus it is fulfilled by the prophecy (promise) told us by Moses that Yahweh would gather Israel under the national banner of THE EAGLE NATION and make them all collectively (we the people) a holy government where they are all Kings and Priests to rule by the Spirit of God within them:

Ex. 19:3-6 "And Moses went up unto God, and Yahweh called unto him out of the mountain, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel; Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how I bare you on eagles' wings, and brought you unto myself. Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine: And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel."

Isaiah 61:6 "But ye shall be named the Priests of Yahweh: men shall call you the Ministers of our God: ye shall eat the riches of the nations, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves."

Rom. 13:3,4 "For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same: For he (the righteous ruler) is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he (the ruler) is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil." (This is not referring to evil rulers of Mystery Babylon)

1 Peter 2:5 "Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ."

1 Peter 2:9 "But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of Him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:"

Jer. 3: 14 -17 "Turn, O backsliding children, saith Yahweh; for I am married unto you: and I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion

(latter day Eagle Nation): And I will give you pastors according to mine heart (a Christian nation), which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding. And it shall come to pass, when ye be multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, saith Yahweh, they shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of Yahweh (the old Kingdom): neither shall it come to mind: neither shall they remember it; neither shall they visit it; neither shall that be done any more. At that time they shall call JerUSAlem the throne (government) of Yahweh; and all the nations (dispersed Saxon Israel) shall be gathered unto it, to the name of Yahweh (NT Jesus Christ), to Jerusalem: neither shall they walk any more after the imagination of their evil heart.”

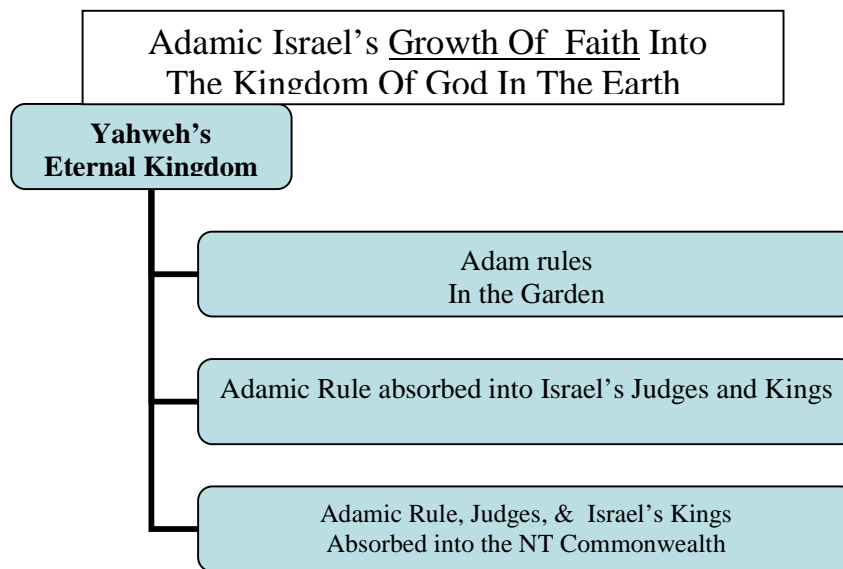

Hebrews 10:16 “This is the (new)covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith Yahweh, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;” Rev.5:9,10 “And they sung a new song, saying, Thou (Jesus) art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us (Saxon Israel) to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;(where scattered) And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.”

Note that as Yahweh moves Israel through history, that finally it becomes they themselves (the Commonwealth of believers) who reign, although still by the Laws of God. This is because we are now the “body of Christ” and there is no separation between us and the Eternal King any longer. As we are perfected into this revelation (more perfect as we learn), the work of Christ Himself in doing this, finally results in “WE the people” being His Body which rules with Him being the Head. In the Christian Commonwealth of contract law ( the holy virtue of promises) “WE the people” is not secular humanism, but quite the contrary. “WE the people” are the “sheep of His pasture”. (Ps.95:7; 100:3) and have been transformed into the Kingdom of Priests and a holy nation.

Psalm 95:7 “For He is our God; and we are the people of His pasture, and the sheep of His hand.” Psalm 100:3 “Know ye that Yahweh He is God: it is He that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are His people, and the sheep of his pasture.”

Know this too. Although Yahweh’s laws don’t change, He has changed US! That change for Israel took place at Pentecost with the arrival of the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. The “covenants of promise” of the old Kingdom are now inside the New Testament Christian Israel Commonwealth, as Paul teaches, because the Law is now inside of us (Heb. 8:10). Ancient Israel under the Judges and Kings could only hope for what we actually have as Saints of the Most High, “the mind of Christ” (I Cor.2:16). Where as then only Judges or Kings were led of the Spirit to rule, now the Saints are gifted to participate as the race grows in grace. We still apply the divine Law but the people have “graduated” to become rulers as they themselves are “The Body of Christ”. The Christian Compact governments, the honorable representatives, the judging juries, the enforcers of the Law, all are in effect “Judges and Kings” of a now matured Old Testament system that lacked the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, but has advanced with the same Laws into a better way. In fact this was one of the “covenants of promise”. “But ye shall be named the Priests of Yahweh: men shall call you the Ministers of our God: ye shall eat the riches of the Nations, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves.” (Isaiah 61:6) “And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation; (where Saxon Israel was scattered) And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and WE shall reign on the earth.” (Rev. 5:9,10) [Yes, a new song but the same Laws. The Commonwealth is the Kingdom. Early Americans realized this but we have terribly forgotten it. It’s time to re-learn with much more accuracy about America and our Constitutional Commonwealth Republic.

2 Thessalonians 1:3 “We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren (assembled congregation), as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth”

“And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm Reliance on the Protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes, and our sacred Honor.” ( The Declaration of Independence, 1776 -- the American Christian Colonies )

Mark 10:44 “And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.”
